Ingredients

- 1 lb ground turkey
- 1/2 cup breadcrumbs

- 1 large egg, beaten
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh parsley
- 1 tsp dried oregano
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- 1/2 tsp ground cumin
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 1/4 tsp black pepper
- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 4 large whole wheat wraps
- 1 cup Greek yogurt
- 1/2 cucumber, grated and drained
- 1 tbsp lemon juice
- 1/4 cup crumbled feta

Instructions

1

In a large bowl combine the ground turkey, breadcrumbs, beaten egg, half the garlic, parsley, oregano, paprika, cumin, salt and pepper. Mix gently until just combined so the meatballs stay tender.

2

Scoop the mixture into 1.5-inch meatballs — about 16 total — and roll each between your palms to seal any cracks so they hold their shape while cooking.

3

Heat the olive oil in a wide skillet over medium heat. Working in two batches so the pan is not crowded, brown the meatballs for 5-6 minutes, turning occasionally until deeply golden, then remove to a plate.

4

Make the tzatziki while the meatballs rest: stir the yogurt, grated cucumber (squeezed very dry), remaining garlic, and lemon juice together with a pinch of salt in a small bowl, and chill it.

5

Return the first batch of meatballs to the pan, add 1/4 cup water, cover, and simmer 10 minutes until cooked through to 165F, glazing the meatballs in the sauce made from their juices.

6

Layering step: warm the wraps in a dry pan for 30 seconds per side, then spread a generous spoonful of tzatziki across each, leaving a 1-inch border at the edges.

7

Arrange 4 meatballs in a row down the centre of each wrap, then crumble the feta over the top and add a handful of crisp greens or sliced tomato if you have them on hand.

8

Fold the two short ends of the wrap inward over the filling first so the meatballs do not spill out, then roll tightly from the long edge into a firm cylinder.

9

Slice each wrap in half on a sharp diagonal and serve immediately with the remaining tzatziki for dipping.

Chef Tips

"Roll the turkey mixture into balls with lightly oiled palms to stop it sticking."

"Grate the cucumber on the large holes and squeeze out as much water as possible — wet tzatziki thins out and slides off the wrap."

"Cook the meatballs in two batches; crowding the pan lowers the heat and steams them instead of browning them."

"Warm the wraps just before filling so they bend without cracking, and fold the ends in first so the filling stays put."
